

- Men Who Shop: Purchase supplemental food and sundries that support families and non-profit groups. This group shops the Friday before each 3rd Sunday at 7:30 a.m. at Sam's Club. Contact Bill May, bmrco@cstone.net
- Project Transformation: Eight-week summer enrichment day camp for at risk children. Participating churches provide tutors, craft supplies, snacks and five meals for college student interns. Contact person needed to organize volunteers. Contact Cindy Remington, mspoots@msn.com.
- PACEM: Homeless shelter for men operates October - March and rotates between area churches. FUMC hosts two weeks. Contact the church office for more info.
- School Aid: Provides snacks, school supplies, coats, and emergency clothing for at risk children. Contact Jeanne Stanborough, jeanne.stanborough@agedwards.com
- Thanksgiving and Christmas Food Baskets: Provides food for the holiday meal and enough canned goods for a week. Contact Christy Mactavish, Christy_mactavish@yahoo.com
- VIM: Volunteers in Mission travel internationally for mission work that includes construction, VBS, music, and medical assistance. We have sent volunteers to Angola and our sister church in Lithuania. Contact Jane Clarke, janebillclarke@earthlink.net or Jim Berlin, kathyjimmerlin@adelphia.net

Church office: (434) 296-6193
www.CvilleFirstUnitedMethodist.org

I'm interested in the project(s) checked above:

Name: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

MISSIONS PROJECTS AT FIRST UMC

How You Can Put Your Faith Into Action:

Interested? Check the box and add your name and contact info on the back side, drop it in the offering and we'll call you!

- Angel Tree: Provides Christmas gifts for needy children. Contact Christy Mactavish, Christy_mactavish@yahoo.com
- ASP: Appalachia Service Project: A youth mission opportunity that travels to the Appalachian area to make homes warmer, safer, and drier. Open to youth age 14 and/or rising high school freshman and older. Takes place in the summer months for one week. Contact Dave Wheatley, wheat1506@earthlink.net
- Backyard Mission: Provides housing repairs for low income and handicapped homeowners. Projects are done the third Saturday of each month. Check our website for details. Contact Greg Horton at (434) 971-8083
- Bread and Blessings: Serving a nutritious meal each Monday at noon provides love, caring, and inspiration for those in need through. Workers needed to help with cooking and serving on the first, second, fourth and fifth Monday of each Month. Contact Margaret Carpenter, wrctr@nexet.net
- Habitat for Humanity: Builds affordable houses for low-income individuals. Contact the Habitat office for work dates, cvillehabitat@nexet.net
- Holy Comforter Food Pantry: Distributes food to community people in need each Wednesday from 10 - 12. Contact Joyce Pannazzo, pannazzo12@aim.com
- IMPACT: Ministry designed to address social justice concerns facing Charlottesville and the surrounding area. Contact Evelyn Jones, yanceygirl@earthlink.net
- Loaves and Fishes Food Pantry: Distributes food to community people from Jackson Via School on Tuesday from 7 - 9 and Saturday from 10 - 1. Contact Becky Allison, allison99@adelphia.net

(continued on back)